

Releasing Butterflies or Doves

According to legend making a wish and giving the butterfly its freedom, the wish will be taken to the heavens and be granted. The releasing of doves signifies a new beginning. While most often the ceremony takes place at the end of the wedding, some couples choose to do it immediately after the release.

Love is like a butterfly,
as soft and gentle as a sigh.
The multi coloured moods of love are like it's sat-in wings.
Love makes your heart feel strange inside, it flutters like soft wings in flight.
Love is like a butter fly
a rare and gentle thing.

I feel it when you're with me it hap-pens when you kiss me that rare and gentle feeling that I feel inside.
Your touch is soft and gentle your kiss is warm and tender;
when ever I am with you I think of butterflies.

You laughter brings me sun-shine, everyday is spring-time and I am only happy when you are by my side.
How precious is this love we share how very precious sweet and rare together we belong like daffodils and butterflies.

Groom and Bride: To signify the love and friendship of marriage, we release these doves.

Guests: May they soar to the heights of the Heavens.

RELEASING BUTTERFLIES OR DOVES

No. 3

Two doves meeting in the sky
Two loves hand in hand eye to eye
Two parts of a loving whole
Two hearts and a single soul
Two stars shining big and bright
Two fires bringing warmth and light
Two songs played in perfect tune
Two flowers growing into bloom
Two Doves gliding in the air
Two loves free without a care
Two parts of a loving whole
Two hearts and a single soul
